Hospital's $1000 gift from a citizen

A member of the Altona Elderly Citizens' Club has donated $1000 to Altona District Hospital.

Well known Altona personality, Mrs. Kitty Mitchell, of Queen Street, decided to make the donation last week while attending a Civic Hall concert arranged by the hospital ladies' auxiliary.

Talking to the Star this week, the president of the ladies auxiliary, Mrs. June Crofts, said the generous gesture by Mrs. Mitchell was extremely encouraging and came as a pleasant surprise.

Mrs. Mitchell was one of 20 members of the Elderly Citizens' Club who were given free tickets to the auxiliary concert featuring well known organist and pianist, Shirley Radford.

Contacted by the Star, hospital president, Mr. Bob Stringer said he was delighted to hear of the unusually high donation.

"It is support like this that has helped us to bring the hospital to its present high standard," he said.

Mr. Stringer said he hoped the donation by Mrs. Mitchell would be a source of inspiration to other citizens to support their hospital no matter how big or small the donation.

"We're very proud of our hospital. For a hospital of its size it is very much with-it and compares favorably with other small hospitals in the area," said Mr. Stringer.

He said the money donated by Mrs. Mitchell would be used to buy new equipment for the hospital.

Sums raised by the ladies auxiliary as the result of a Christmas stocking they raffled last year has gone towards the purchase of a refrigerator for the hospital kitchen and a heart monitor.

Julie's jolted

There was this high jump bar, see, and Julie-Ann Sheriffs was trying to leap over it.

But the bar was a little too high and poor Julie could not make it (that's what happened in the picture above).

Now when you're just eight years old the world is a big, big place — and everything seems so serious.

So, when you fail to do something, it's a pretty upsetting thing, and young Julie-Ann did what comes naturally — she cried.

But this little story has a happy ending. A kindly official at the Moomba Little Athletics came along (right) and comforted our Julie.

Soon all was better — and Julie had got over her tears.

...And Jenny's jumping for joy

It's no wonder 17-year-old Jenny Davidson is jumping for joy — she's just won the Junior Girls High Jump at the Australian Women's Athletic Championships held in Hobart.

A higher school certificate student at Altona North High School, Jenny realised a four-year-old ambition in taking out the national title.

Jenny was not selected for the Victorian team. She entered the championship as an independent (Footscray Women's Club).

Jenny left nothing to chance after paying her own way — her winning jump was 5 ft. 3 in.

She follows in the footsteps of Giannia Sardi (discus) and Manfred Rohkammer (javelin) who have also won Australian titles under the expert guidance of Brian Mahoney.

Brian is coach of St. Bernard's Athletic Club and Altona North High. He also coaches many other Victorian champions and predicts an even greater number of Victorian and Australian champions from the western suburbs.

Val's Column

Hello Girls,

Steiner has the head for fashion, Girls.

Glo-ahead hair color is just one of their fashion aids.

Glo-ahead stays and stays, through 6-8 shampoos, after only waiting five minutes for the foaming action to penetrate you will have fashion color.

No skin tests required as 'Glo-ahead' is quite harmless to normal skin. The range of colors is enormous, eighteen shades for you to pick from. Definitely economical, your bottle is large allowing short hair to have many applications: long hair, no matter how thick, can be sure of even distribution and ample foam for several applications.

No matter what your present hair shade, you can change for another fashion color.

Now, if your family raves about your new color, it perhaps brings out fading lights, gives your complexion more bloom — then ask for Steiner 'Tint and Glo' next time. You will then have a permanent color with one shampoo in 'Tint and Glo', the complete hair coloring kit that shampoos in soft lasting color.

Next time, be a little daring, lighten your hair up to three shades. 'Tint and Glo' will do this — and more. Lighten it and brighten, with a warm gold toning, or lighten and ashen at the same time.

Then again, if you have never been a real blonde you've missed out on something, haven't you?

Steiner can brighten your life and hair to the color blonde most admired by you — and yours.

Be a tone in blonde with Color Hair—ash, sweet beige, gold or natural blonde. I advise B. Blonde to be used by anyone wanting a drastic color change — that is if your hair is a dark shade of brown and you wish to be a blonde tomorrow.

Not only are colors available for your hair — but shampoos, conditioners, treatments, the whole hair bit for the whole family.

Bye.

Amethysts are the champions

Girls who live in Altona have an opportunity to join a marching team which is trained by one of Victoria's best instructors.

Joanne Jorgensen, 21, of Jubilee Street, Newport, whose team has won three Australian championships, trains the Altona Amethysts, who will be going to the Australian championships in Easter.

As the season will finish soon, she'll need new members for the midget and senior teams.

The present team was only "C" grade when Joanne started training it last year. Within three weeks she brought them up to "B" grade and since then they have the title of Victorian champions.

The Altona Amethysts wear an attractive uniform of a gold blouse, purple skirt and jacket, white hat, white boots and gloves.

They will stage a march-a-thon on April 7 to raise part of their fares. An extra $400 is still needed — it costs $2000 to send two teams to Tasmania.

Joanne, who studies arts and crafts at Melbourne Teachers' College, started marching at six.

Her father, Mr. Eric Jorgensen, is Victoria's chief judge and her mother is State Welfare Officer for marching girls.

A member of the West Newport Flamingoes, she has won about 480 medals when her team won the Victorian championship seven times, the Australian championship three times in Melbourne, Hobart and Perth and numerous other titles.

"Marching is a sport which teaches girls discipline, bearing, good posture, alertness and promotes friendship with girls from all over Australia," she said.

Joanne is not the only champion in her family — her twin sister, Toni, older sister, Suzanne, and brother Peter have all made their mark in marching.

Joanne says marching is not an expensive hobby. Her team members pay only 30 cents a week.

which includes the cost of their uniform.

Girls interested in joining one of her teams could contact the secretary, Mrs. Downey, phone 398 3291.

Joanne, a sweet-natured, friendly girl, insists that success in marching depends on the amount of time one is willing to put into practice.

"The last three weeks before the national titles, anything up to 20 hours a week is spent practising," she said.

But she added that the rewards of travel and fellowship make the time spent worthwhile.

Joanne shows some of the 900 medals she and her twin sister, Toni won as marching girls.

"I should have stuck to chasing cats instead of fighting snakes. I hadn't seen a snake before and I didn't know they can be deadly. I'm Lassie. I was lucky. I lived after being bitten by that horrible-looking snake."

Tribute to Tarweena

Tarweena was only small—barely 10 in. high—but what she lacked in build she made up for with courage.

She died last week, aged 10½ years, as the result of a tiger snake bite.

The small Australian Terrier, who had twice saved the life of her young mistress, battled for 20 minutes with the snake.

Tarweena's daughter, Lassie, spent almost a week at a vet's surgery being administered with serum, after she too had been bitten.

Both dogs belonged to Mrs. Joan Craggs of Millers Road, Seaholme.

From car

Tarweena had twice saved the life of Mrs. Craggs' daughter Julie — once by hanging on to her bathers when she was in difficulties in the water at St. Leonards and another time when she rode her bike onto the street.

Tarweena sensed the danger of the five-year-old venturing across the road in the path of an oncoming car and barking loudly, leapt madly at the driver's door.

The driver stopped. He had not seen Julie, who by this time had run into the stationary car.

Mrs. Craggs said there had been sightings of seven snakes near Cherry Lake last week and another five had been killed. In most cases they had been run over by motorists.

She said it was the first time in seven years she could remember seeing snakes in the Bayside village area.

Children

Mrs. Craggs said she was faced with the agonising decision of whether to try to distract the dogs from the snake and perhaps in doing so letting the snake escape or whether to let the dogs fight it until some neighboring men were able to kill the snake with a spade.

"There are several small children living close by, and I felt I couldn't let the snake escape and possibly bite one of them".

The dead snake has been preserved in spirits and her children are going to take it to school.

Mrs. Craggs feels children should be made aware of the dangers of snakes and should be able to recognise the more venomous varieties.

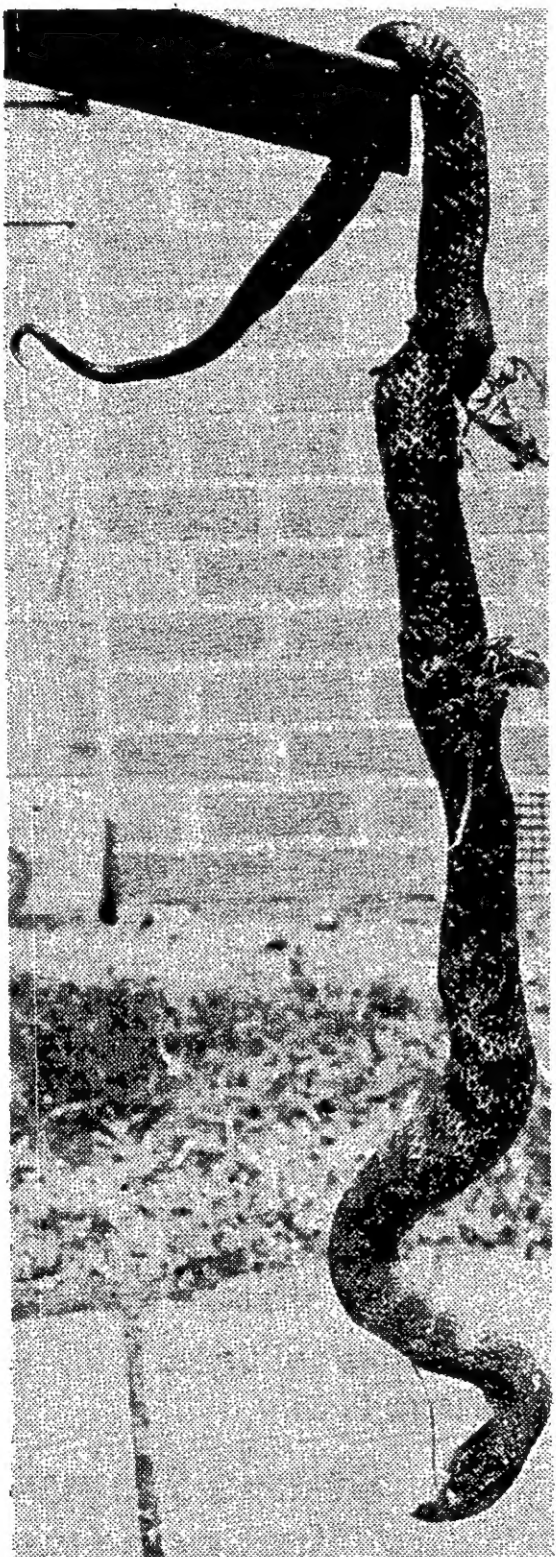

A dog does not suffer any agony when bitten by a tiger snake. The poison spreads rapidly through the body and the tell tale signs of snake bite are dilation of the eyes, trembling and a weakness in the hind quarters.

If a dog is not treated almost straight away with the serum, it will die of respiratory failure.

It can take one or two weeks for all the symptoms to disappear.

Tarweena's death was most probably due to a bite on her tongue, although she had been bitten five times by the snake.

The face of a dog is most vulnerable to snake bites as the snake will strike when the dog tries to bite it.

ASSAULTED IN SNACK BAR

Police are anxious to interview a youth about the assault in a Footscray snack bar of an Altona man.

The youth is described as about 17, Australian, slight build, about 5 ft. 9 in. tall, blond hair and fair complexion.

He was in the vicinity of the Grand Snack Bar, in Leeds Street, Footscray, about 10.30 p.m. last Thursday.

er, of Davis Street, Altona was at the Grand Snack Bar about that time.

He bought a hamburger and as he was leaving, a youth walked up to him, muttered something, then punched him in the face, Mr. Kershaw told detectives.

The investigation is in the hands of Footscray CIB.

Sewer blocked by vandals

Vandals were the cause of the recent overflowing of sewage through manholes in the Esplanade region, Senior Health Inspector, Mr. J. Mifsud reported to Altona Council, at its last meeting.

Mr. Mifsud said following complaints from ratepayers during the recent heavy rains he had contacted the Board of Works Deep Sewer Branch and was told the matter would be investigated.

He had later been advised by the officer concerned that vandals had damaged and blocked a manhole behind the Mt. St. Joseph Girls' School causing blockage of the sewer line upstream.

Mr. Mifsud said the blockage had since been cleared and the manhole sealed.

Speed sign?

Altona Council is considering placing a speed limit sign in Harrington Square following comments by Cr. Charlie Carlsson. At the recent council meeting the matter was deferred to the next general purposes committee meeting.

Williamstown opening bowler, Geoff Horsburgh, proudly displays his "10 wicket cricket ball".

Death of show judge

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria has lost one of its most dynamic members with the death of Judge Norman Frederick Mitchell, CMG, who died on March 8 at the age of 73.

A member of the council since 1940, he was elected vice-president in 1952 and served in that office until his election to president in 1957.

The late Judge Mitchell was elected a trustee of the RASV in 1949 and held that position until his death.

Speaking of the loss to the society by the death of Judge Mitchell, the president, Mr. P. B. Ronald, said it would be virtually impossible to replace a man such as the Judge.

I didn't say 'backward' — Cairns

In a letter to Altona Council, Mr. Philip Cairns, the son of and private secretary to the Minister for Overseas Trade and Secondary Industry, Dr. Jim Cairns, has denied stating that Altona and Williamstown are backward cities.

Mr. Cairns said in his letter:

"In reference to the Altona Star leader dated Wednesday, February 21st, where the paper quotes the Altona Council as passing a motion asking for a retraction by myself of statements made in the Star on January 17, 1973.

"Firstly, I would like to say quite clearly that no statement in any way like the one credited to me was in fact made by me."

"In fact, having visited the area several times to acquaint myself with conditions within the municipality, I was extremely impressed at the way that Council has obviously carried out its function. It is important at this time to recognise that a great deal of additional activity and facilities could be provided through the proposed Western Regional Development Committee in direct aid to your municipality, therefore, I feel that it is most unfortunate owing to both the urgency of Federal assistance and solidarity within the region that the mis-report should have occurred."

Following a motion by Cr. Doug Grant who originally moved that council write to Mr. Cairns, the letter was noted.

ART SHOW

Williamstown Beta Sigma Phi's annual art show will be held next month.

CONCRETE REQUEST

The Williamstown Swimming and Life Saving Club have approached Williamstown Council with a request to have a strip of concrete six feet wide placed outside the club kiosk at Williamstown bathing beach area.

The club also requested the installation of two seats on the site of the old kiosk.

A sketch plan was forwarded to council and the club indicated it would be willing to pay half the cost of the concrete if necessary.

• Vandalism strike again! The "Not" in the Do Not Enter sign outside the State Savings Bank in Railway Street has been carefully erased. Council workmen pulled down the handiwork and a new sign is to be erected.

A pet show at Williamstown Primary School, Cecil Street, will be aimed at boosting funds to help celebrate the school's centenary later this year.

The show will be at the school at 9.30 a.m. on Friday this week.

No entry fee will be charged to exhibitors, but an admission fee of 10 cents will apply to everyone attending.

A wide range of dog, cat and bird sections is provided and there are classes for fish, rabbits and other pets.

ONE RECORD GOES, ONE EQUALLED

One Victorian record was broken and another equalled, at the Western Metropolitan Region Little Athletics divisional championships at the weekend.

Stephen Smith, of Westona club, broke the State record in the under 11, 100 metre hurdles event.

Stephen covered the distance in 15.3, covering the previous best, 15.3.

In the under 11, 800-metre walk, Andrew Jackno, of the Altona North club, equalled the State record with a 3:59.7 result.

The titles were contested at the Little Athletics Ground, Grabb Reserve, Altona.

Competing were clubs from Altona, Williamstown, Laverton and Sunshine.

WILLIAMSTOWN WINNERS

Winners of the trophy for the best centre on the day were Williamstown.

All told, 30 centre records were broken.

A spokesman for the Altona centre said yesterday the day was successful only because of the help of many people.

These included officials, St. John Ambulance brigade members and Altona Council and staff.

The centre's executive wished luck to all children eligible for the Victorian championships, at Olympic Park later this month.

"Freak-out"

ALTONA'S POP SCENE

Altona's latest pop dance, FREAK-OUT, has the ingredients to become an instant success on its opening night, Friday, March 23.

First you find a good acoustic container like the Civic Hall, throw in some crazy lighting, add to that Australia's top pop band Leo and Friends and throw in a rock and roll band like Lord Dog for good measure. The result is what looks like being a very successful dance.

To describe Friends as Australia's top band is no overstatement of their ability. The way the pop scene is at the moment, a band only stays on top for about three months and at the moment it's Friends turn to ride the crest of that wave.

Recent examples of this shortlived popularity are Daddy Cool, the Aztecs and more recently Carson.

All but one of the members of Friends was at one time in King Harvest which was a top group two years ago. Now with Tim Martin on saxophone in their ranks, Friends have really got it together and developed a tight sound.

For those of you who haven't heard of Leo de Castro or Friends and would dig to see them in action at the Civic Hall this Friday week, this might tell you more about them:

We'll start with Leo, (he's the singer, by the way). He spent six years in New Zealand working solo and in various bands. He came to Australia and joined the Browns, leaving them to sing solo in Sydney. Then he formed the highly successful King Harvest and recorded Witchita Lineman and Jumping Jack Flash.

Next on the list is Marc Kennedy who besides being a brilliant drummer is the pulse of the band.

Marc has been involved in many notable recordings including: I'll Be Gone, Spectrum Part 1, Launching Place Part 11, Witchita Lineman, Jumping Jack Flash and much extended session work with TCS studios, and worked as a studio drummer for pilot TV shows. After leaving Spectrum to join King Harvest, Marc went on to Fanny Adams, then to Doug Parkinson in Focus. Now he is with Friends.

Guitarist, Ray Oliver, has done a variety of work over the past six years in both England and Australia. He is also well known for his session work in both Melbourne and Sydney. He joined King Harvest in 1970 and then went on to Friends in November, 1971. Among his many influences are Chuck Berry, Eric Clapton, Stephen Still and Frank Zappa.

As for Billy Green, well what can you say about him. He's brilliant in the studio and on-stage as a musician. He's been in bands with Doug Parkinson, Leo and many other musos. He is respected throughout the scene for his guitar work.

Tim Martin, I won't say anything about, just wait till you hear him play that sax, man.

Supporting Leo and Friends will be the exciting new group, Lord Dog. They have an incredible stage act too. Doors to the dance will open at 8.00 p.m. and admission will be $1.60 to meet the high overhead encountered by promoters. See yah there.

The Hassler.

Ron Clarke will talk health

Ron Clarke, champion runner and supporter of all things healthy, will be at Martin's Health Foods store in Pier Street on Saturday morning.

Ron will be at the shop from 10 a.m. to answer questions on health and fitness.

Proprietor of the store, Mrs. Kay Martin, says that she is hoping for a good turn up from local people for Ron's appearance.

The store, which sells all health foods, attracts more middle aged and elderly people than young, says Mrs. Martin, who adds that more people these days are buying natural healers.

"For example, older people are discovering that lecithin meal is a good nerve tonic and that it is much healthier and less harmful than prescribed drugs," she said.

She explains that husband Wayne has been an eater of health foods for 11 years and that she had eaten health foods since she met him.

"They make you so much better and healthier," she said.

And the Martin's two-year-old son, Adam, is growing up the health food way.

"He is really healthy. There is never anything wrong with him. What better recommendation could you have" added Kay.

... IN DAD'S FOOTSTEPS

It's becoming almost a tradition in Australian motor racing for sons to follow in the footsteps of their fathers.

At Calder's star-studded Australian Touring Car Championship meeting on March 18 supporting races will witness a number of instances of this nostalgia tinted trend.

Possibly the most exciting of the co-features and certainly bound to be the hardest fought will be the fifth round of TAA's Driver to Europe series for Formula Ford racing cars. No less than three new generation names will contest this race over 15 laps of the demanding little high speed mile track. Terry Perkins is favorite. He is Eddie Perkins' son.

The other two "generation" names are Geoffrey Brabham and Jon Davison. Racing starts at 10.30 a.m.

Mrs. Lumb's "debut"

Organist, Wyn Lumb, from Essendon, took the spotlight at a recent meeting of Michael Hendry's International organ Club.

After all, it was Ladies Night.

Wyn has been playing organ for a comparatively short spell — her primary interest was piano — but her performance was that of an experienced artist.

A most successful debut!

Later, Michael Hendry demonstrated some of the unique effects obtainable from the Kimball model 1080 organ — also having its debut. The Kimball will be on display at the Michael Hendry Organ Centre, Footscray, for a limited period.

Civic dinner

More than 150 Industrialists and civic leaders will get together in the Civic Hall on Friday night for Altona Council's "Operation Hand-clasp 1973" dinner.

The dinner is council's way of expressing its appreciation to local businessmen and committeemen for their co-operation with the council in its many phases of activity.

The function will commence at 6 p.m. with cocktails in the mayoral suite, followed by a buffet dinner in the Civic Hall at 6.30 p.m.

Teachers rapped

The thirty Altona High School teachers who went on strike recently to campaign for better conditions for the teachers and students at the school, came under sharp criticism from Altona's Cr. Pat Lynch at the last council meeting.

Cr. Lynch commented: "I think 30 teachers campaigning on the steps of Parliament House would have done better teaching the children and putting their complaints through the proper channels."

Carry On (Victoria) (an ex service organisation with similar ideals to Legacy) has gained approval from Altona Council to sell badges in the City on Friday, December 7.

WILLI MOVES TO Altona home in two cricket semi-finals

Williamstown Cricket Club player of the moment, Geoff Horsburgh, captured six wickets for 59 runs last weekend.

Geoff and veteran all-rounder, John Fowler, were instrumental in Williamstown's semi-final victory over Preston.

Williamstown will contest the group final, against Ormond, next Saturday and Sunday.

MATCH DETAILS

Les Joslin won the toss of the coin and decided to bat. Kev. Tweedly and Barry McConnell opened. Tweedly was not at the crease for too long before he was caught behind off the bowling of Jeffrie when only five.

Bert Park joined Barry and they went along nicely. The score-board showed 47 when Park was caught at 16.

Les Joslin and Barry pushed the score along with some lovely stroking until Les lost his wicket when 25.

Willy were 3 for 65. Robin Dyson was the next batsman in and he was caught by the substitute field, Hodges, giving Jeffrie his third scalp.

Barry Hewet scored nine and John Becroft seven and then came John Fowler with a stubborn knock of 32 to take the score over the 100. McConnell was run out at 32 and Williamstown eventually got 149 from Lou Dowling with a nice boundary shot. Lou was the not out man, with 14 runs to his credit.

This innings lasted exactly 200 minutes. Preston batted and the air was electric with a good vocal Williamstown crowd expecting action as Horsburgh took the "cherry."

His first over was a maiden. Lou bowled the second over and eight runs came from it. The crowd did not have to wait long for action with Norris flicking the ball to Les Joslin in slips. The ball hit his wrist and Lou Dowling cleverly held the catch.

Johnston was the next man in and he was off first ball when "Hors" had him lbw. The crowd were buzzing — could he get a hat-trick.

However, they were disappointed and had to wait until Preston were 22 before seeing Cooper being clean bowled by Horsburgh.

It was looking good for Williamstown but Collins and Puchelenko got the score along to 48 before Hewet snapped up a good catch off the bowling of Les Joslin bringing the total to 4 for 49.

They went on to be 4 for 67 at the close of play on Saturday with Captain Dick Telford and Puchelenko being the night-watchmen.

Play resumed at 12.30 p.m. on Monday and getting life out of the pitch it was Horsburgh again with Puchelenko putting the ball to Fowler and the score was now 5 for 79.

Downer was the fifth victim of Horsburgh when he was clean bowled, then Telford met the same fate.

The Willy camp were jubilant now with victory in sight. But dogged batting by the visitors pushed the score along to 160 then Fowler struck and Hudson was out lbw (8 for 108).

At this stage, Les Joslin showed great captaincy and started to alternate his attack — McConnell, Fowler himself and Horsburgh interchanging. This slowed the scoring rate up and Fowler and McConnell were bowling very tight and Hudson was tricked and stumped by Tom Ferris off. Fowler. And from 9 for 113 Preston pushing the score along to 122 before McConnell had Jeffrie lbw — all out!

At stumps, Williamstown were 8/126.

Williamstown — 1st Innings: Kevin Tweedly, c. Cooper, b. Jeffrie, 5; Barry McConnell, run out, 32; Bert Park, c. Hodges (sub), b. Jeffrie, 16; Les Joslin, c. Johnston b. Jeffrie, 25; Robin Dyson, c. Robin Dyson, n.o. 33 John Becroft, c. Cooper, b. Rutenfelds, 1; John Fowler, lbw Rutenfelds, 9; Geoff Horsburgh, b. Downer, 17; Tom Ferris, n.o. 6; Sundries 5; Total 8 for 126.

Williamstown Thirds defeated Coburg 111 and 7 for 107 with Laurie Hewet taking 2 for 30 in the 1st Innings and 1 for 13 in the 2nd Innings. Bob Ducrow 3 for 20 1st Innings.

Neil Speakman 2 for 15 and 1 for 34. Nev. Speakman 3 for 5 and 2 for 16 being the best of the bowlers.

Williamstown declared at 8 for 195 with Jeff 'D.' Salter, 71, Brian Park, 42 and Gary Matty a good knock of 32 not out and Robert Ducrow 19 not out. Ducrow was very pleased with his lads and predicts a great 73/74 season.

Mixed feelings for bowlers

Jubilation, tempered with regret — that was the mood in Altona Bowling Club rooms after Saturday's final round of pennant.

Jubilation because the club now has a team in the premier division and regret because B4 failed to make the grade and will be relegated next season.

A2 were narrowly defeated by Caulfield, 82-79, Res. 3 lost to Clifton Park, 90-111 and B4 went down to Coburg, 91-93.

Willy High wins third in a row

Williamstown High School recently won the A section of the Western Division High School's Swimming Carnival for the third year in succession.

Williamstown won the senior and intermediate sections and was runner-up in the junior — gaining 49 places, including 25 firsts, out of 66 events.

Final scores: Williamstown 243, Sunbury 160, Braybrook 159, Altona 103, Werribee 93, Sunshine 92, Laverton 72.

BOTTLES TO AID FOOTY

Williamstown Methodist Football Club will hold a paper and bottle-drive on Sunday, March 25.

Anyone able to assist with donations is asked to contact Lance Powley (397 7251) or Tom Russell (397 6405).

The club is training at Fearon Reserve on Monday and Wednesday. Open age, under-17, 15, 13 and 11 players are asked to attend training regularly.

The season starts on April 7.

Altona's second Innings started sensationally with Royal Park bowlers snaring four wickets for 12 runs. However, Frank Kirk and Graeme Hosken settled down and at stumps, Altona were 4/62.

CLUB XI

Newport ANA opened poorly and were dismissed by Altona for 133 runs. Dave Naughton, 5/29, was the main danger.

At stumps, Altona were 6/84.

Unfortunately, Altona's second day activities left a lot to be desired and the team was eventually bundled out for a meagre 120.

But the bowlers set about rectifying the bats poor showing and had Newport ANA all out for just over 100 — leaving themselves 1½ hours to total 130 runs.

With all to gain, Altona went for quick runs but failed. The team were all out for 113. Jim Joyce, 48, top scored.

Apex raffle

Altona Apex Club has gained approval from Altona Council to conduct a raffle in the City from May 19 to July 14.

Proceeds will go to the club's charitable trust fund. The tickets will be sold in Pier Street, Harrington Square, the Sixteen Shops, Borrac Square and the Circle.

Junior athletes go into the finals

Three Williamstown Amateur Athletic Club junior teams won semi-finals at Melbourne University last Saturday.

The successful sub-junior under-15 and 13 teams will represent the venue in the metropolitan finals at Olympic Park.

The team will meet Old Xaverians, after Saturday's convincing 66-46 victory over Albion. John Van Denoeven set a new club record in the hammer event with a throw of 105 ft. 5 in.

The 200 metre event was won by Paul Jamieson, 23.1, with second and third berths filled by Robert O'Sullivan and John Sinnot respectively. Later, Robert, John, Paul and Robert Caldwell, won 4 x 200 metres relay in the fast time of 1:35.7.

Eero Karanen dashed home to win the 800 metres in 2:02.6, with Robert Caldwell, 2:04.6 and Robert Hall, 2:05.5, close behind.

The under-15 team defeated Albion, 60-52, and will meet Footscray next week.

The star of the team was Eric Dusink, who won the 80 metres hurdles in 13.2, and the long jump, 18 ft. 8 in. Steve Mulholland performed well to win the 800 metres in 2:07.7.

The under-14 team was defeated by Old Xaverians, 68-44.

The under-13 team accounted for Old Xaverians, 70-29, and will battle Footscray in the finals. Steven Hardeman literally walked home in the 800 metres (walking event) in the excellent time of 4:07.5.

A bus for the convenience of spectators and competitors will leave Newport oval headquarters at 2.15 p.m.
